KEY TERMINOLOGY

- In-text citation: brief reference within the body of your work that points to the full citation
 - Parenthetical: reference information is placed inside parentheses, typically at the end of a sentence. [Eg. Research shows positive outcomes (Smith, 2023).]
 - Narrative: author's name is integrated into the narrative of the sentence, only publication year/page number in parentheses. [Eg. Smith (2023) stated that "education is transformative" (p. 45).]
- Footnote: reference placed at the bottom of a page
- References/bibliography/works cited: A list of all the sources cited in a paper

APA CITATION

OVERVIEW

- History
 - First introduced in 1929 in Psychological Bulletin to bring uniformity in psychology writing.
 - Created because social science research was expanding rapidly and needed clear, standardized rules for referencing.
 - Has gone through multiple editions, the 7th edition (2019) is the latest.
- Fields
 - Psychology, Sociology, Education, Political Science, Economics, and other social sciences.
- Purpose & Focus
 - Emphasizes date of publication → shows how current the research is.
 - Important in fast-evolving fields where new findings quickly build on previous work.

APA CITATION

GENERAL STRUCTURE

- Title page, Abstract page, Body, Conclusion, Reference page
- Double spaced, left aligned, pages numbered

In Text Citations:

- (Smith, 2018), or “.. as first theorized by Smith (2018)”
- (Smith, 2018, p. 28), or (Smith, 2018, pp. 28–30)
- (Smith & Jones, 2018), or (Smith, Jones, & Warner, 2018), or (Smith et al, 2018)
- Reference Page: Author Last Name, Initials. (Year). Title in italics, sentence case. Publisher/DOI

MLA

History

- Developed by the Modern Language Association of America, founded in 1883.
- MLA style guidelines first appeared in the 1950s, primarily for literature and humanities research.
- The 9th edition (2021) is current.

Fields

- Literature, Philosophy, Cultural Studies, Art History, and other humanities.

Purpose & Focus

- Emphasizes page numbers → because analysis often comes from close reading of texts.
- Prioritizes readability and connecting ideas directly to passages in works of art/literature.

MLA

Double spaced, 1-inch margins, paragraph indented, size 12
Times New Roman

In-text citation: (AuthorLastName Page#)

Wordsworth stated that Romantic poetry was marked by a
"spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings" (263).

vs.

Romantic poetry is characterized by the "spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings" (Wordsworth 263).

Last Name, First Name. Title in italics if long; quotation marks if short. Publisher, Year.

MLA

- If there's no known author, put the title in quotation marks if short, italicized if long
- Two authors: (Smith and Jones 48)
- Multiple authors: (Smith et al. 48)
- Quoting indirect sources: "qtd. in", eg. (qtd. in Weisman 342)
- No comma!

CHICAGO

History

- First published in 1906 by the University of Chicago Press.
- Designed to give consistency for publishers, especially in history, theology, and multidisciplinary fields.
- The 17th edition (2017) is current.

Fields

- History, Theology, Law, and Interdisciplinary works (many book publishers also use it).

Purpose & Focus

- Emphasizes footnotes/endnotes → ideal for detailed commentary and citing many types of sources.
- Supports two systems:
 - Notes & Bibliography (humanities, history)
 - Author-Date (sciences, social sciences — similar to APA).

CHICAGO

Paper Format

- Use 1-inch margins, Times New Roman 12 pt font, double-spaced text, and include a title page and page numbers.

Footnote – for citing within the body of the paper

Endnote –for citing at the end in the bibliography

SHORTENED CHICAGO CITATIONS

What Are Shortened Citations?

- Used in footnotes/endnotes for references with full bibliography entries.
- Simplifies subsequent citations for the same source.

Key Components:

1. Author's last name.
2. Shortened title version.
3. Page number(s).

Examples

Full Citation:

- 1. Gabriel Valero, Wills of the World (New York: Heritage Press, 2020), 54–

Shortened Citation:

- 2. Valero, Wills of the World, 55.

Variants:

- Two Authors: (Craig and Karl, 36)
- Three or More: (James, et al., 5)
- No Author: (Shortened Title, 45)

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

1. No Author

- APA: Use the title in place of the author.
- Example: ("Global Warming Trends," 2020)
- → Global Warming Trends. (2020). Climate Watch.
<https://climate.org>
- MLA: Use a shortened version of the title.
- Example: ("Global Warming Trends" 23)
- → "Global Warming Trends." Climate Watch, 2020,
<https://climate.org>.
- Chicago:
 - Footnote: "Global Warming Trends," Climate Watch, 2020, <https://climate.org>.
 - Bibliography: "Global Warming Trends." Climate Watch. 2020. <https://climate.org>.

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

2. Multiple Authors

- APA:
 - 2 authors → (Smith & Jones, 2020).
 - 3+ authors → (Smith et al., 2020).
- MLA:
 - 2 authors → (Smith and Jones 45).
 - 3+ authors → (Smith et al. 45).
- Chicago:
 - Footnote: John Smith and Mary Jones, Title (Publisher, Year), 45.
 - 3+ authors → John Smith et al., Title (Publisher, Year), 45.

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

3. Indirect Sources (Secondary Citations)

When you're citing something quoted in another source.

- APA: Freud's theory was influential (as cited in Jones, 2019).
- MLA: Freud argued that... (qtd. in Jones 56).
- Chicago:
 - Footnote: Sigmund Freud, quoted in John Jones, Title (Publisher, 2019), 56.

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

4. No Date

- APA: Write n.d. (no date).
- Example: (World Health Organization, n.d.)
- MLA: Use n.d. or simply leave out date if not available.
- Example: (World Health Organization).
- Chicago:
 - Footnote/Bibliography → World Health Organization.
